

The Scheller Bradford Group is proud to recommend The RetireMEDiQ Program to our Clients.

As you near retirement, we want to make your transition to Medicare simple. That's why The Scheller Bradford Group has partnered with RetireMEDiQ to provide a health insurance resource for those preparing for retirement and their families.

You now have exclusive access to The RetireMEDiQ Program. This program provides you with helpful information via the RetireMEDiQ Newsletter, which is customizable and is designed to guide you through your transition to retirement and Medicare. Join the nearly 20,000 local individuals who are signed up to receive our unique newsletter.

When you sign up for The RetireMEDiQ Program, you will also gain direct access to our Benefit Advisors, wide range of health plans and online resources so you can begin learning. Best of all, this program is offered at no cost to you, your family and friends.

Visit retiremediq.com/johnharder to sign up for The RetireMEDiQ Program today!

It is important to us that you and your loved ones have the help you need to make informed Medicare decisions. When you sign up for The RetireMEDiQ Program, you will begin receiving e-communications that will help you cut through the clutter of Medicare information and protect your savings in retirement!